The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 10th day of January, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit that the defendant is not, and has not been since the commencement of this action, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and the Court being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the

JUDGMENT AND DECREE

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glennon, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 7 day of January, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED to the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED that, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor children, alimony, support of the minor children, and which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by both parties in said Stipulation, and by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the two minor children, namely, Samuel I. Reid, now aged 2 years, and William Morris Reid, now aged 2 months, is hereby awarded to plaintiff with the right on the part of defendant to visit said children at all reasonable times and places, provided however, that whenever the defendant contemplates a visit to said children that he shall give the plaintiff one hour's notice in advance of his intention to do so.

3. That the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the support of the said minor children, the sum of $75.00 per month; the first payment being due January 3rd, 1948, and a like sum payable on the third day of each and every month thereafter; that in addition thereto the defendant shall purchase for the use and benefit of said children not less than $25.00 ~~clothing~~ per month and other items of support for said children and shall obtain receipts to substantiate the purchase and delivery of such items to the plaintiff and the defendant further agrees that in the event said children shall require any medical treatment consisting of doctor bills or hospital bills, that the defendant will pay the same and he hereby expressly assumes and agrees to pay such expenses.

4. That all of the community property of the parties consisting of a radio, baby crib, baby carriage, a few dishes and linens and linens be awarded to plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

5. That the defendant shall pay to plaintiff's attorneys the sum of $100.00 as attorneys fees for the prosecution of this action and the sum of $15.00 Court costs for the filing of said action.

6. That the foregoing award and agreements of the parties are made in consideration of the premises above stated and shall be in lieu of all other community property, alimony, and attorney fees, support money, other than that mentioned above.

Lillian M. Campbell, Clerk

This matter came on to be heard by the court this 27th day of January, 1948, where the plaintiff appeared in person and by his attorney C. H. Higer, and the court having examined the files, finds that the service of summons was made upon the defendant by publication thereof, and that the time has elapsed for the said defendant to answer, plead or demur to said complaint; and thereupon, and based upon the Military Service Affidavit of plaintiff to the effect that the defendant was not in the Military Service of the United States of America, the court entered defendant's default.

THEREUPON, the court heard the sworn testimony of plaintiff and his corroborating witness and from it the court finds that the plaintiff and defendant were married as alleged in said complaint and that there was born of said marriage no children, nor did they accumulate any community property, and the court further finds that the plaintiff and defendant have lived separate and apart five years next proceeding the date of the filing of this action; and that the plaintiff is, therefore, entitled to a decree of divorce upon the grounds of voluntary separation for more than five years without cohabitation.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge, and decree, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby absolutely dissolved and plaintiff and defendant are hereby divorced from one another.

CLIFTON R. HARTY,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ANNA L. HARTY,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This action, having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appeared in person with his attorneys, Whitla and Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons and complaint in this case was duly and regularly made upon the defendant by the publication thereof in accordance with the statutes in such case made and provided, and the orders of this court duly made herein, and that due proof of the publication and the mailing of said summons and complaint to the defendant has been duly filed herein.

After the expiration of the time allowed by law for the defendant to appear, and the defendant having failed to appear or file any answer, the plaintiff duly filed an affidavit showing that the defendant was not in the federal service as a member of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or any military service of the United States whatever, as designated by the act of Congress, and thereafter the default of said defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this court.

After hearing the evidence introduced, findings of fact having been waived, the Court finds and decrees:

I.

That the plaintiff and defendant were married at Mead, Washington, in 1946, and ever since have been and still are husband and wife, and that the plaintiff has been a bonafide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action and still is such resident.

II.

That the plaintiff and defendant have no children or community property.

III.

That the defendant for several years prior to the date hereof has engaged in continuously nagging the plaintiff, finding fault with him, and has become jealous of the plaintiff, and at the same time in the presence of his friends and relatives has continually nagged him, made fun of him--particularly in regard to an infirmity which he has consisting of being hard of hearing--and when her relatives were around they would join in making fun of the plaintiff, all of which continued to such an extent that it has inflicted upon the plaintiff great and grievous mental pain and suffering to such an extent that plaintiff and defendant can no longer live together as husband and wife, and by reason thereof the court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff, and that he is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on that ground.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, CLIFTON R. HARTY, and the defendant, ANNA L. HARTY, be and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved, annulled and set aside, and that the plaintiff be and he hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of January, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Woodrow T. Wright, was duly and regularly served with process herein by personal service upon him outside the state of Idaho, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner, or at all, herein although the time for appearanc has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either army, navy or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made and there was filed herein an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and the Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises finds: That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife until on or about the 1st day of April, 1947, and ever since that date have been and now are living separate and apart; that during the greater part of the period of such marriage the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner, causing her great mental anguish, humiliation and shame, by the acts complained of in said complaint, and that such acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff were calculated to cause plaintiff great mental suffering, humiliation and shame and none thereof were caused by any act or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that there were born as the issue of said marriage the following named son and daughter: Robert Woodrow Wright, born November 24, 1943, and Margaret Elaine Wright, born June 11, 1947, which said children are now with the plaintiff, and each of whom the plaintiff desires to have and should have awarded to her herein, the Court finding that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have said children and each of them so awarded to her herein; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the parties to this action, excepting as alleged in the complaint; and that service having been made upon the defendant without the state of Idaho no judgment for money may be entered herein.

The Court therefore finds that plaintiff is entitled to judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; and that the care, custody, and control of the minor children of said marriage should be awarded to the plaintiff; and that the plaintiff should be awarded the radio of said parties, to be her sole and separate property.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Mildred Wright, and the defendant, Woodrow T. Wright, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved, on the grounds of extreme cruelty of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all of the obligations of such marriage, and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the care, custody, and control of the minor children of said marriage, to-wit: Margaret Elaine Wright, and Robert Woodrow Wright, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit said children and each of them at reasonable times and places.

It is further ordered and decreed that the plaintiff be and she is hereby awarded the radio belonging to said parties, the same to be her sole and separate property.

This cause came on regularly to be heard on the 19th day of January, 1948, and it appearing that the defendant, Eldon Lester Downs, was duly and regularly served with process herein by service made upon him in the County of Baker, State of Oregon, according to law, and that he has failed to appear in any manner or at all herein although the time for appearance has fully expired, and a proper and sufficient affidavit, showing that the defendant was not at any time during the pendency of this action, and is not now, in the service of the United States of America, either Army or Navy, or otherwise, having been filed herein and based thereon a Judge of this Court made, and there was filed herein, an order permitting the default of said defendant to be entered upon proper and sufficient showing of proper service upon him, and thereupon, and on such order and showing of proper service upon the defendant, the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant herein, and this Court thereupon proceeded to try said cause.

The Court having heard the testimony of the plaintiff and a witness in her behalf and having examined the evidence in support of the allegations of the complaint herein, and the matter having been submitted to the Court for judgment, and the Court having considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds:

That all the material allegations of the plaintiff as set forth in her complaint herein are true, to-wit: That plaintiff and defendant intermarried as alleged in said complaint; that plaintiff is, and for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action was, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that plaintiff and defendant ceased to live together as husband and wife on or about the 19th day of October, 1947, at which time they ceased to live together and ever since have been and now are living separate and apart; that the defendant treated plaintiff in a cruel manner as alleged in said complaint and caused her great physical and mental suffering, humiliation and shame, and that such acts were wilful; that none of the acts of the defendant toward the plaintiff were caused by any act or thing on the part of the plaintiff; that there has been born as the issue of said marriage one child whose name is Kenneth Aldon Downs, born July 3, 1946, which child is now with the plaintiff, being supported by the plaintiff and her parents and which plaintiff desires to have awarded to her herein, and the Court finds that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have awarded to her the care, custody and control of said minor child; that as the defendant was personally served outside the State of Idaho, a money judgment should not be entered herein; that there is no property of any kind or character belonging to the plaintiff and defendant in the State of Idaho, or elsewhere.

The Court, therefore, finds that plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree of this Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff; that the care, custody and control of the minor child of said marriage should be awarded to the plaintiff.

IT IS, THEREFORE, HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, That the marriage between the plaintiff, Dorothy M. Downs, and the defendant, Eldon Lester Downs, be, and the same hereby is, dissolved on the grounds of extreme cruelty by the defendant toward the plaintiff, and that both parties be, and they are hereby relieved of all obligations of said marriage and returned to the status of unmarried persons.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND DECREED, That plaintiff be and she hereby is given the care, custody and control and education of Kenneth Aldon Downs, minor child of the parties to this action, but that the defendant shall have the right to visit such child at reasonable times and places.

This matter came on regularly for hearing on the 16th day of January, 1948, at the hour of 2:00 o'clock P. M., before the Honorable James W. Porter, District Judge. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. W. Taylor, and defendant appeared by his attorney, W. L. Dunn. The defendant having in open court withdrawn his demurrer to plaintiff's complaint heretofore filed, and refused to plead further in the matter and consented that his default be entered forthwith, the default of the defendant was by order of the Court duly entered. Testimony was thereupon submitted by the plaintiff and by witnesses in her behalf; and the Court being fully advised in the matter finds that all the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty as prayed in her complaint; that a property settlement agreement has been made by the parties hereto, which agreement the Court finds to be just and equitable, and the same is hereby approved by the Court.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be and the same hereby are dissolved, and each of the said parties is restored to the status of a single, unmarried person.

ELLSWORTH E. WHITTAKER, Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 16th day of January, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. Barnes; defendant made no appearance, and it being known to the Court that on the 12th day of January, 1948, there was filed herein defendant's affidavit of voluntary appearance, executed and acknowledged January 7th, 1948, admitting the receipt of a copy of the summons and complaint in this action, refusing to plead to the complaint herein, consenting to his default being entered, and subjecting himself to the jurisdiction of this Court for all purposes connected with the above entitled action; it appearing further that on the 13th day of January, 1948, the default of the defendant for failure to plead was entered by the Clerk of this Court, now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that the default of the defendant so entered by said Clerk be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to the length of her residence in the State of Idaho. From the evidence thus adduced, the Court finds that the allegations of the complaint as regards the residence of the plaintiff, the marriage of the parties, that there are two children born of said marriage, the eldest being four years old, that plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the custody and control of said minor children, that the defendant has agreed to pay $60.00 a month towards the support of said minor children, that there is no community property, and that the defendant has treated the plaintiff with extreme cruelty by the infliction upon her of grevious mental suffering, are all true.

From the facts thus found, the Court concludes that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the ground of extreme cruelty; that the plaintiff should be awarded the custody and control of said minor children; and that the defendant should be required to pay to plaintiff $60.00 a month for the support of said minor children.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge and decree, that the marriage between the plaintiff, Vera B. Whittaker, and the defendant, Ellsworth E. Whittaker, be dissolved, and the same hereby is dissolved; that said parties be and each of them is freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony; that the plaintiff be, and she hereby is awarded the custody and control of the minor children, Mabel Lucille Whittaker and Robert John Whittaker; that the defendant be and he hereby is required to pay to plaintiff the sum of $60.00 a month towards the support of said minor children; that the defendant be and he hereby is allowed to visit said children at reasonable hours twice a month so long as he continues to pay said support money.

Judgment rendered this 16th day of January, 1948.

Defendant.

#21180

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 7th day of February, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of a copy of the summons and complaint within the state as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of and toward the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

Done in Open Court at Boise, Idaho, this 7th day of February, 1948.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Agreement, by the terms of which they agreed

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children, namely, Darlene Hickman, age 14, Gary Wayne Hickman, age 12, and Janet Hickman, age 8, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right on the part of defendant to visit children at all reasonable times and places and in vacation time have them with him at reasonable times.

3. That the community property of the parties be awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property.

4. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for the support and maintenance of said minor children the sum of $75.00 per month, payable $37.50 on each pay day, the first payment to be made on March 15th, 1948, and a similar payment on the 1st and 15th of each month thereafter until said children arrive at the age of 18. As each child arrives at the age of 18, the said sum shall be reduced to the extent of $25.00 per month.

5. That defendant will pay to Black & Black, attorneys for plaintiff the sum of $50.00 on their attorney fee and the same shall be paid $10.00 each pay day beginning on March 15th, 1948, and continue until said $50.00 is paid.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF IDAHO, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BOISE

MARJORIE J. SAUNDERS,
Plaintiff,

-vs-

F. H. SAUNDERS,
Defendant.

The above entitled cause came on regularly for hearing before the Court sitting without a jury on the 7th day of February, 1948, on the complaint of plaintiff and the records and files in said action, Ralph R. Breshears, attorney at law of Boise, Idaho, appearing as attorney for said plaintiff, and the said defendant not appearing in person or by attorney or at all.

It appeared to the Court from the records and files in said action that the said defendant, F. H. Saunders, had been duly and regularly served with summons in said action and that said defendant had not appeared in person or by attorney or at all in said action, nor answered or pleaded to the complaint on file therein within the time specified in said summons, or within the time allowed by law, or at all, and that such time has expired and default of the said defendant was thereupon duly entered by order of the Court for failure to so appear or plead.

Evidence was thereupon introduced in behalf of the plaintiff in support of the allegations contained in said complaint, the testimony of said plaintiff being corroborated by the testimony of other witnesses, and the Court having heard the evidence and the proofs and duly considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, finds that each and all the allegations contained in said complaint are true, and that that certain written agreement, dated December 24, 1947, and executed by the plaintiff as party of the first part and by the defendant as party of the second part, wherein and whereby the then existing and all future property rights of plaintiff and defendant were mutually settled, is just, reasonable and a fair and equitable settlement of the property rights of plaintiff and defendant. Whereupon it was ordered that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant as prayed in said complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, On motion of Ralph R. Bresheers, attorney for said plaintiff, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

I

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Marjorie J. Saunders, and the defendant, F. H. Saunders, be and they are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that the plaintiff and the said defendant shall be and they are hereby absolutely and finally divorced and freed of all obligations of their said marriage.

III

That the care and custody of Shirley Saunders, Sharron Saunders, Arlene Saunders and Patricia Saunders, minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff during the minority of said children, reserving to the defendant herein the right to visit the said children in the custody of the plaintiff at reasonable times and places.

IV

That the defendant, F. H. Saunders, shall pay to the plaintiff, Marjorie J. Saunders, the sum of $37.50 per month for each of the minor children of the plaintiff and defendant, or a total of $150.00 per month for the support, maintenance and education of said minor children, said monthly payments to be made on or before the first day of each and every month, commencing with the month of December, 1947, and to continue as to each of said children until they attain the age of twenty-one years, providing they continue in school or are injured; and provided that in the event any of said children cease going to school after they attain the age of eighteen years, that then in that event the monthly payment to be made to the plaintiff for the maintenance, support and education of such child electing to discontinue its' education, shall cease at the age of eighteen years unless said child has been injured permanently.

V

That the defendant, F. H. Saunders, shall pay to the plaintiff, Marjorie J. Saunders, the sum of $100.00 per month as permanent alimony for her support and maintenance, said payments to continue until the plaintiff dies or remarries, whichever event shall first occur.

VI

That the plaintiff Marjorie J. Saunders, is hereby adjudged and decreed to have and own all of the following described real and personal property as provided by said written agreement dated December 24, 1947, to-wit:

Now on this 24th day of January, 1948, the above cause came duly on for hearing, court being in reguler session, the Hon. D. H. Sutphen, sole judge thereof, present and presiding.

The court after having examined the proof of service, finds that the defendant, George Brunsel was duly and personally served with a copy of the complaint and summons on the 29th day of December, 1947. That no appearence has been made by the said defendant.

The plaintiff present in person, and by her attorneys, Bissell & Bird, and the defendant coming not and having failed to answer or appear in the above entitled action within the time affixed by law, upon motion of the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for failure to answer or to appear was ordered entered.

Whereupon the plaintiff introduced her evidence and rested. That the defendant by failure to answer and appear and making default as aforesaid, has waived the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law. The court being advised of the premises finds generally that the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true.

The court further finds that the said defendant, George Bruneel, is not now in the Military Service of the United States.

The court further finds that a property settlement has been agreed upon between the plaintiff and the defendant, and that the plaintiff shall receive as her alimony herein the sum of $750.00 in cash, and be awarded the immediate possession and title to that certain automobile of which she is now in possession, described in that certain certificate title to motor vehicle No. C-335588, dated 10-4-45;

That the plaintiff be and hereby is awarded a divorce from said defendant, and both the plaintiff, Retta Brunnell, and the defendant, George Bruneel, be and hereby are restored to the status of single and unmarried persons. That the plaintiff recover as her alimony the sum of $750.00 in cash, and the title and possession of the car specified, and her costs herein made and expended.

MILDRED TERRY CAMPBELL,

Plaintiff,

vs.

COLIN CAMPBELL,

Defendant.

THIS CAUSE came on regularly to be heard in open court this 25th day of February 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff herein, W. H. Langroise and W. E. Sullivan appearing as attorneys for plaintiff and Pasco B. Carter appearing as attorney for the defendant. Oral and documentary evidence was introduced and the cause submitted to the Court for decision, and the Court being fully advised in the premises finds, concludes, decides and decrees as follows:

I

That findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by stipulation in writing filed with the Clerk of this Court;

II

That plaintiff herein is now, and for more than six weeks last past and immediately preceding the filing of the complaint and commencement of this action has been, a bona fide resident and domiciled within the County of Ada;

III

That plaintiff and defendant intermarried on March 30, 1944, in Los Angeles, California, and ever since have been, and now are, husband and wife;

IV

That no children have been born of the marriage of the parties hereto, and said parties have no community property; and, on December 1, 1947, the parties hereto entered into an Agreement in writing settling and determining the property rights, duties, and obligations of the parties to this action, which Agreement is sustained by the evidence in this cause and is fair and equitable and should be approved and confirmed in this action, an executed copy of which Agreement is in evidence herein and filed in the files of this Court and cause, a copy of which Agreement is marked Exhibit A attached to this Decree, and by reference made a part hereof;

That since the marriage of the parties hereto said defendant has treated plaintiff with extreme cruelty, and has inflicted upon her grievous physical and mental suffering, which conduct has impaired, and will continue to impair, plaintiff's health, all as alleged in the complaint herein, and by reason thereof the said plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce;

VI

That the name of plaintiff prior to her marriage with defendant was Mildred Beatrice Terry, which name should be restored to plaintiff.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and the same is, hereby dissolved upon the ground of the defendant's extreme cruelty to said plaintiff, and that the parties have, and each of them is, freed from the bonds of matrimony and all the obligations thereof, and that the plaintiff and defendant are restored to the status of single persons.

2. That said Agreement, being Exhibit A attached hereto, made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant, and dated December 1, 1947, be, and the same is, hereby approved, confirmed and ratified; that said Agreement is a full, complete and final settlement of all the property and property rights of plaintiff and defendant, community and separate, and said property and property rights of plaintiff and defendant are hereby awarded and decreed in conformity therewith.

3. That plaintiff's name be restored to that by which she was known prior to her marriage, to-wit, Mildred Beatrice Terry.

DATED: February 25, 1948.

District Judge

EXHIBIT "A"

THIS AGREEMENT Made this 1st day of December, 1947, between MILDRED TERRY CAMPBELL of 110 West 55th Street, New York, New York, hereinafter referred to as the "Wife", and COLIN CAMPBELL of Hotel Manhattan Towers, Broadway and 76th Street, New York, New York., hereinafter referred to as the "Husband",

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the parties hereto married on or about the 30th day of March, 1944, at Los Angeles, California, and there has been no issue of the marriage; and

WHEREAS, in consequence of disputes and unhappy differences, the parties have separated, and are now and for some time have been living apart, and since their separation have agreed to live separate and apart during their natural lives; and

WHEREAS, the parties are desirous of settling their property rights, and the Husband is desirous of making provision for the maintenance and support of the Wife;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises and undertakings herein contained, and for other good and valuable consideration, the parties agree:

1. The parties may and shall at all times hereafter live and continue to live separate and apart. Each shall be free from interference, authority and control, direct or indirect, by the other as fully as if he or she were sole and unmarried. Each may reside at such place or places as he or she may select. Each may, for his or her separate use and benefit, conduct, carry on, and engage in any business, profession or employment which to him or her may seem advisable.

2. The parties shall not molest or interfere with each other, nor shall either of them compel or attempt to compel the other to cohabit or dwell with him or her, by any means whatsoever.

3. The parties own certain household goods and other items of personal property formerly located at 140 West 58th Street, New York City, N. Y., the premises previously occupied by the parties. Such property is now located at 110 West 55th Street, New York, New York, the Wife's residence, and shall constitute the property of the Wife. The Husband shall and hereby does relinquish all right, title and interest that he may have therein. The Wife acknowledges that she is holding for the Husband's account the items listed on Schedule A, hereto annexed, and made a part hereof, and that she will turn over the same to the Husband upon demand.

4. The parties acknowledge that there is no real property owned by them or either of them.

5. The Husband has paid to the Wife, simultaneously herewith, the sum of $28,500.00, receipt whereof is hereby duly acknowledged by the Wife.

6. The Wife accepts the provisions herein made as and for a satisfactory, reasonable and sufficient provision for support and maintenance, past, present and future. She acknowledges that such provision for her support and maintenance, is ample in view of her youthful age and recognized earning capacity, and will in fact provide her with support and maintenance commensurate with the husband's means and consistent with her accustomed mode of living, reasonable requirements and station in life. Accordingly, the sum set forth in paragraph five has been and is hereby accepted by the Wife in full discharge, settlement and satisfaction of the Wife's claim for support for the rest of her life.

7. The Wife further accepts the provisions herein made in full settlement and satisfaction of any and all other claims and rights whatsoever (including, but not by way of limitation, dower and all rights under the laws of testacy and intestacy), which she ever had, now has, or might hereafter have against the Husband by reason of their relationship as husband and wife, or otherwise. The Wife hereby releases and acquits the Husband and his estate of and from any and all claims, liabilities, and obligations whatsoever, except only such as are specifically assumed by or imposed upon the Husband hereunder. It is the intention of the parties that all liability of whatsoever nature on the part of the Husband to the Wife, past, present and future, actual or potential, whether arising from their relationship as husband and wife or otherwise, shall cease and terminate absolutely and forever.

8. The Wife warrants to the Husband that she has not heretofore incurred any obligations whatsoever for which the Husband or his estate may be or may become liable, and the Wife hereby agrees to indemnify the Husband and hold him harmless against any such obligation. So long as the Husband shall duly perform the terms and conditions of this agreement on his part to be performed, the Wife shall not at any time hereafter incur any debt or incur any obligation for which the Husband or his estate may be or may become liable.

9. The parties shall and do hereby mutually remise, release and forever discharge each other from any and all actions, suits, debts, claims, demands and obligations whatsoever, both in law and in equity, which either of them ever had, now has, or may hereafter have against the other upon or by reason of any matter, cause or thing up to the date of the execution of this agreement, it being the intention of the parties that henceforth there shall be, as between them, only such rights and obligations as are specifically provided in this agreement.

10. Each party shall, at the request and expense of the other party, at any time and from time to time hereafter take any and all steps and execute and deliver to the other party any and all instruments and assurances that the other party may reasonably require for the purpose of giving full force and effect to the provisions of this agreement. In case of the failure of either of them promptly to execute and deliver, upon demand, and any all such instruments, the other of them is hereby authorized, as the attorney-in-fact of the one so defaulting, to execute and deliver such instruments, and each of them hereby confirms and ratifies such execution and delivery as his or her own act or acts.

11. Each party releases and relinquishes any and all claims and rights that he or she may have had, may now have or may hereafter acquire (a) to share in any capacity or to any extent whatever in the estate of the other party upon the latter's death, whether by way of statutory allowance or distribution in intestacy, or election to take against the other party's Last Will and Testament, and/or (b) to act as executor or administrator of the other party's estate.

12. No modification or waiver of any of the terms of this agreement shall be valid unless in writing and executed with the same formality as this agreement.

13. The provisions of this agreement shall not be construed to prevent either party from suing for a divorce in any jurisdiction, lawful and proper grounds appearing therefor. The terms and conditions of this agreement shall continue in full force and effect, notwithstanding the dissolution of the marriage by a decree of divorce, and any such decree obtained by either party shall, at the request of either, refer to this agreement or any of the provisions hereof which fix and determine the reciprocal rights and obligations of the parties hereto. In any such action for a divorce or separation, the Wife shall make no application for temporary or permanent alimony or counsel fee.

14. In consideration of the provisions herein made for her by the Husband, the Wife has simultaneously herewith withdrawn the action for separation which she has heretofore commenced against the Husband in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, and she has likewise withdrawn the motion made in such action for alimony and counsel fees.

15. The parties have incorporated in this agreement their entire understanding. No oral statement or prior written matter extrinsic to this agreement shall have any force or effect. The parties are not relying upon any representations other than those expressly set forth herein.

16. The parties hereto declare that each has had independent legal advice by counsel of his or her own selection; that each fully understands the facts and has been fully informed of all legal rights and liabilities; that after such advice, and knowledge, each believes the agreement to be fair, just and reasonable; and that each signs the agreement freely and voluntarily.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have set their hands and seals this 1st day of December, 1947.

The above entitled matter came on regularly for hearing at Shoshone, Lincoln County, Idaho, on the 2nd day of February, 1948, the Plaintiff appearing in person and by Howard E. Adkins, her attorney, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appearing thereat and the Court finds that the Defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to appear or answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the Defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the Plaintiff in support of her complaint, from which it appears, and the Court finds, that the allegations of the Complaint are sustained by testimony free and clear from legal exceptions as to its competency, admissibility, and sufficiency and that the matters so alleged in said Complaint and proved on behalf of the Plaintiff are true and correct and sufficient in law to entitle Plaintiff to a Judgement and Decree of Divorce against the Defendant, and that the Defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in said Complaint, and that the Plaintiff is, and for more than six full weeks immediately prior to the filing of the Complaint herein, has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED: That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the Plaintiff and Defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; that the custody of James Richard Hardy and Von LeRoy Hardy, the minor children of Plaintiff and Defendant, be, and the same is hereby, awarded to the Plaintiff, Vadis Hardy; provided, however, that the Defendant shall have the privilege of visiting said children at reasonable times under reasonable circumstances.

This cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned, one of the Judges of the above entitled Court in the Chambers of this court in Bannock County Court House, in Pocatello, Idaho, on the 24th day of February, 1948. The Court examined all of the files, records and proceedings had, and finds that the summons has been personally served on the defendant in the State of Oregon, as appears from the files herein. That the defendant appeared by Demurrer through Attorney Alfred P. Kelley, Attorney at Law, Portland, Oregon, and also through Attorney W. C. Loofbourrow, of American Falls, Idaho, and that said Demurrer was noticed for hearing by notice served on defendant's counsel according to law; that thereafter the defendant acting by and thrcugh her said attorneys, filed a withdrawal of her appearance, verified on January 13, 1948, which withdrawal was served on plaintiff's counsel, and thereafter filed in the files of this Court. That the Court accepts the said withdrawal of appearance. That by an order duly given and made the Court over-ruled the defendant's Demurrer on the 10th day of February, 1948, and gave the defendant ten days within which to further plead. That notice of the order over-ruling the demurrer has been served by mail on the defendant; that the time within which the defendant could plead has expired, but that no pleading has been entered; that an affidavit is on file showing that the defendant is not in the military service, and the Court has ordered the Clerk of this Court to enter a Clerk's Default according to law; that a Clerk's Default has been entered.

That the Court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action, and over the subject matter thereof.

That thereupon the plaintiff presented his evidence and the Court having heard the evidence of the plaintiff and his corroborating witness, and having considered the same, finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in the complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, OSWALD D. GATES, and the defendant, DORIS M. GATES, be, and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that each of the parties be and each is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the custody, control and care of the children of the parties to this action, BEVERLY JEAN, now aged 17 years, WYNONA CLAIRE, now aged 15 years, and DOREEN MARIE, now aged 13 years, be and the same hereby in awarded permanently to the defendant, subject only to the right of the plaintiff to visit said children at all reasonable times.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That all of the household furniture belonging to the parties to this action, and one Model 1941

Ford V-8 sedan automobile, all of which is now in the custody of the defendant, be, and the same hereby is awarded to the defendant, to be her own separate property, free from any right, title or interest therein on the part of the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED That the plaintiff pay to the defendant for the support of herself and for the said minor children, the sum of $150.00 a month until the further order of the Court herein.

JUDGEMENT AND DECREE Rendered and entered this 24th day of February 1948.

DECREE OF DIVORCE.

THIS MATTER came on to be heard before the above entitled Court on the 13th day of February, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorney, J. H. E. Deckert, Sheriff of Riley County, Kansas; it appearing further that the defendant has made no appearance in this case since the date of said service; now, on motion of plaintiff's attorney, IT IS ORDERED that the default of the defendant for failure to appear and plead within the time allowed by law, entered herein by the Clerk of this Court on the 10th day of February, 1948, be and the same hereby is approved and confirmed.

The plaintiff was sworn and examined, and a witness was sworn and testified in corroboration of plaintiff's testimony as to her residence. DECREE OF DIVORCE

#21179

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 6th day of March, 1948. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by publication of summons as required by law and had failed, or neglected, to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause; and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit, and satisfactory evidence adduced, that the defendant is not, and for more than sixty days prior to the commencement of this action has not been, in any branch of the military service of the United States of America, or its allied nations, as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of her complaint, which was corroborated by the testimony of one witness as to her residence, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision, and after considering the evidence and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the parties have lived separate and apart without cohabitation for more than five years immediately preceding the commencement of this action, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and be divorced from the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of Matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same hereby are, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

THIS CAUSE Came on regularly for trial on the 21st day of February, 1948, before the Court without a jury, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her counsel, Vernon K. Smith, Esq. of Boise City, Idaho, and the defendant having appeared neither in person nor by counsel. It appearing from the file in said cause that the defendant was duly and lawfully served with Complaint and Summons, and the defendant having failed to appear and plead to said cause within the time specified, and the time for such appearance having expired, and a showing having been made that the said defendant was not a person in the armed forces of the United States of America, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Relief Act of 1940, or any other act of congress or the legislature of the State of Idaho, duly enacted and approved, the default of said defendant was entered. Whereupon, oral and documentary evidence was submitted to this Court from which it appears that all the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true, and that she is entitled to the relief for which she prays, and it specifically appearing from admissable evidence that the plaintiff is a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, which said fact was duly corroborated, the Court makes its Order, Judgment and Decree as follows:

By B. CLYDE EAGLESON DEPUTY

This action coming on regularly for trial in open court this 15th day of March, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff, William F. Baird, and the defendant, Helen V. Baird, having been regularly served with process and having failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed herein, the legal time for answering or otherwise pleading having expired and no answer, demurrer or other pleading having been filed, and the necessary affidavit having been heretofore filed in compliance with Section 200(1) of the Act of Congress approved October 17, 1940, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and Acts amendatory thereof, setting forth, and from which it appeared, that the defendant, Helen V. Baird, is not in the military service of the United States of America, or of any nation with which the United States is allied in the prosecution of any war in which the United States is now engaged, as defined by Section 101(1) of said Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act approved October 17, 1940, and Section 104 of said Act, as amended October 6, 1942, and cited as the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 and the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act Amendments of 1942, or as amended by the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1943 (Women's Army Corps), or any other Acts of Congress amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, or in any other Act of Congress or of the Legislature of the State of Idaho duly adopted and approved; and the court, upon proof adduced at said hearing, deeming it not necessary for the above named plaintiff to file a bond to indemnify said defendant, Helen V. Baird, against any loss or damage she may suffer by reason of any judgment entered in the above entitled cause, should judgment thereafter be set aside in whole or in part, the default of said defendant, Helen V. Baird, in the premises was thereupon duly entered according to law;

Carey H. Nixon, Esq., appeared as counsel for plaintiff, and the defendant did not appear personally, by counsel or otherwise, and evidence having been introduced and witnesses examined, and the evidence having been submitted to the court for its decision, and it appearing that all of the allegations of the complaint are true, and all and singular the law and the premises being by the court understood and considered, the court finds and decides:-

1. That the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho for more than six weeks next preceding the commencement of this action.

2. That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried on or about June 6, 1931, at Albany, Albany County, New York, and ever since and up to the date of this decree have been husband and wife.

3. That there is no community property or homestead.

4. That as the issue of said marriage there were born two children, one son, William J. Baird, aged fourteen (14) years and one daughter, Elaine Mary Baird, aged twelve (12) years, both of whom are now under the care, custody and control of defendant, their mother, at Albany, New York

5. That said plaintiff and said defendant now live and continuously since on or about June, 1941, have lived separate and apart without cohabitation.

As conclusions of law from the foregoing facts, the court finds that plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony between the plaintiff and defendant.

This cause came on regularly to be heard in open Court on the 25th day of March 1948, the plaintiff being represented by her Attorney J. M. Lampert.

The time for answer having expired and no answer or other plea having been made to the complaint herein, and the record showing due service of process, and affidavit being on file showing the defendant is not now, and for more than six months last past, has not been in the military service of the United States of America, as defined by Section 101 (1) of the Soldier's and Sailor's Relief Act of October 17, 1940, or any amendment thereof; and the default of the defendant having been entered, evidence of the plaintiff having been presented to the Court, and there having been corroboration presented as to plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint herein, and the parties hereto having entered into a property settlement agreement executed February 25, 1948.

The Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff, and the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence; and that the plaintiff has been a resident of the State of Idaho for more than six full weeks immediately preceding the filing of this action; the Court further finds that the plaintiff is a fit and proper person to have the care and custody of their minor children; the Court further finds that the property settlement agreement entered into by the parties hereto, is a fair and equitable division of the property under the facts of this case, and the Court approves said property settlement agreement and orders the same to be hereto attached by copy thereof, and by reference thereto, made a part of this decree.

NOW THEREFORE, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the bonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved; that the plaintiff do have the care, custody and control of the minor children of the parties hereto;

Elda Gail Dalton, a daughter, 14 years old

Barbara Colleen Dalton, a daughter, 13 yrs. old.

That there be awarded to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, the property as set forth in said property settlement agreement, and as to the real estate referred to therein as more particularly limited in description as follows:

(a) Service Station at 4th Avenue South & Roosevelt, being lots 7 and 10 both inclusive in Block 1, Grandview Park Subdivision, as per plat on record with the County Recorder of Ada County, State of Idaho, and of the approximate value of $4500.00--with a balance due on contract of purchase, of $958.11.

(b) Lot 2 of Brook's subdivision in Ada County, State of Idaho, as per plat on record with the county recorder of Ada County, Idaho, title to which property is in Ida A. Brooks, the Mother of this plaintiff; and Helen Lydia Dalton and Melvin Dalton, wife and husband; this property was so deeded with the proviso that the same cannot be mortgaged or sold during the lifetime of Ida A. Brooks.

That the Court, in approving the property settlement agreement between the parties, and in awarding the care, custody and control of the minor children to the plaintiff herein, in accordance with the expressed desire of the parties, this Court nevertheless reserves it's general jurisdiction over said minor children, and jurisdiction over the defendant, so as to require the said defendant to pay a stipulated amount per month for the support of the said minor children, and so as to modify this decree in respect to care, custody and control of said minor children at any time a change in conditions would justify the Court in so doing.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 17th day of March 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED to the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED That, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor child, support of the minor child and alimony, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and the making of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by both parties in said Stipulation, and by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is, restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child, namely, Carolyn Green, now aged 9 months, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff with the right on the part of the defendant to visit said children at reasonable times and places.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to pay to plaintiff for the support, maintenance and education of said minor child, the sum of $40.00 per month, the first payment of which to be on October 30, 1947, and a like payment to be made on the last day of each and every month thereafter until said child arrives at the age of 18 years, or until further order of the Court.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

The above entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 20 day of March, 1948. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his attorneys, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and his witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the Complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's Complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objections, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government, or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint. The making and entering of formal Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

2. That defendant be awarded the household goods and furniture in the home of plaintiff and defendant located at 100 Idaho Street, Pocatello, Idaho.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in this Court in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him, and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of extreme mental and physical cruelty; and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be, and they are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the plaintiff be awarded the care and custody of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Billy Eugene Lee.

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable T. Hailey Lee, one of the Judges of the above entitled court, in chambers at Burley, in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 12th day of February, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Love, one of her attorneys, and the defendant failed to appear, either in person or by counsel. Thereupon it appeared to the court that, subsequent to the filing of the complaint of the plaintiff herein, the defendant had executed and caused to be filed herein his written acceptance of service of a copy of the summons, together with a copy of the complaint herein, at Burley, Idaho, on the 10th day of December, 1947, wherein and whereby he did waive his statutory time within which to appear and plead in this cause and consent that a decree might be entered against him as prayed in plaintiff's complaint without further notice.

It further appeared to the court that the time for appearing and pleading to the complaint of the plaintiff had expired and that no answer or demurrer had been made or filed herein by the defendant. It further appeared to the court that an affidavit in compliance with the terms and conditions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been made and filed herein by the plaintiff, wherein it appears that the defendant is not now and has not been for six months last past in the military service of the United States or its allies.

Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Love, attorney for the plaintiff in the above entitled action, the default of the defendant for his failure to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined and the plaintiff rested.

The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendants and being expressly waived by the plaintiff, orders that the plaintiff have judgment and decree as prayed in her complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony which now exist between the plaintiff, Dorothy Klauser, and the defendant, Herman Klauser, be and the same are hereby cancelled, annulled and held for naught, and the plaintiff is hereby restored to the status of a single person, wholly relieved and discharged from any and all duties or obligations owed to the defendant under or by virtue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause came regularly on for hearing before the Honorable James W. Porter, one of the judges of the above entitled court, in open court, in the court room at Burley in the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the first day of March, 1948, upon the complaint of the plaintiff filed herein. The plaintiff appeared in person and by Kales E. Lowe, one of his attorneys. The defendant failed to appear either in person or by counsel. Thereupon it appeared to the court that the defendant had made and filed herein an instrument in writing, duly verified, wherein and whereby the defendant did acknowledge the receipt by her personally within the County of Cassia, State of Idaho, on the 28th day of February, 1948, of a copy of the summons and complaint herein, and expressly waive her time in which to appear and plead to the said complaint, consent to the entry by the clerk of the above entitled court of her default for failure to appear and plead to the same, and did consent to the presentation of the cause to a judge of the above entitled court without further notice to the defendant. It further appeared to the court that an affidavit in compliance with the terms and provisions of the Soldiers And Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, had been made and filed by the plaintiff wherein and whereby it appears that the defendant is not now, and has not been in the military service of the United States or its allies. Thereupon, on motion of Kales E. Lowe, the attorney for the plaintiff, the default of the defendant for her refusal to appear and plead to the cause of the plaintiff was by the court ordered entered. Thereupon, witnesses on behalf of the plaintiff were sworn and examined, and the plaintiff rested. The court, being fully advised in the premises, having duly considered the matter, findings of fact and conclusions of law being waived as a matter of law by the defaulting defendant, and being expressly waived by the defendant, orders that the plaintiff have judgment as prayed in his complaint.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the law and by reason of the premises aforesaid, it is hereby adjudged and decreed as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be and the same is hereby canceled, annulled and held at naught, and plaintiff is restored to the status of a single person, wholly relieved and discharged from any and all obligations owed by him to the defendant by virtue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor children, issue of the marriage of the plaintiff and defendant, to wit, Robert McGill and Claude McGill, are hereby awarded to the plaintiff, subject to the right of the defendant to visit the said children at all reasonable times, and to have the custody of said children for such periods as the plaintiff may in his discretion permit; provided, however, that the defendant shall have no right to remove the said children or either of them from the State of Idaho at any time when she shall have their custody, pursuant to the permission of the plaintiff, without his consent.

3. That the separation agreement heretofore entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant is in all respects ratified, confirmed and approved, and it is hereby found, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff and defendant are the owners of no community property.

4. That the plaintiff is the owner, as his sole and separate property, of the following specified personal property, to wit: one oil range; one daveno, and miscellaneous clothing and bedding.

THEREUPON, the court heard the sworn testimony of the plaintiff and her corroborating witness, and from it the court found that in general the allegations contained in plaintiff's complaint were true, and that she was entitled to the relief prayed for in said complaint; and that defendant had inflicted extreme cruelty upon plaintiff as alleged in plaintiff's complaint.

IT IS THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, and this does order, adjudge, and decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore, and now, existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced from one another.

DECREE

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with her attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service within the State of Idaho, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the defendant is not in the Federal Service on active duty as a member of the Army, or Navy, or Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States, or as an officer of the Public Health Service with either the Army or Navy of the United States, or in training or being educated under the supervision of the United States preliminary to induction into the Military Service thereof.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for plaintiff,

IT IS, BY THE COURT, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, JANET L. POWELL, and the defendant, KENNETH L. POWELL, be, and the same hereby are vacated, dissolved and set aside on the ground of extreme cruelty.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the care, custody and control of the minor children of these parties, and each and all of them, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff for the maintenance and support of each of said minor children the sum of $45.00 per month, payable on or before the 15th day of each and every month hereafter commencing with the 15th day of March, 1948, and continuing until said children shall respectively attain the age of majority or shall sooner become self-sustaining.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, that the defendant shall pay to the plaintiff or her attorney of record the sum of $100.00 as attorney's fees and costs in this action.
